

EXERCISE CYGNUS

PARTICIPANT LESSONS IDENTIFIED AND FEEDBACK FORM

Name (optional) [REDACTED] Role in exercise Evaluator.....

1. For me the two least successful aspects of managing the response to the incident were:

In the early stages there was a lack of structure within the SCG which I felt hampered progress slightly however this was recognised and rectified.

2. For me the two most successful aspects of managing the response to the scenario were:

The presence of what appeared to be a confident and subject knowledgeable Chair allowed the SCG to flow and work well together.

The SCG seemed open and accepting of all participating organisations legitimate interests and needs.

3. The most significant thing I have learnt from the exercise is:

There is a need to establish SCG protocols and practices at a very early stage in order to embed structure so that participants are clear of expectations and timescales that they have to work within and deliver to.

4. My organisation can use this to develop their flu response planning by:
